

Dr. Noor Jihan Abdul-Haqq is a board certified pediatrician from Oklahoma City, OK. Her medical school and residency training were completed through Morehouse School of Medicine. Recently, Dr. Abdul-Haqq completed a Pediatric Integrative Medicine Fellowship through APIM.

Dr. Abdul-Haqq opened her current practice Peace of Mind Pediatrics in Sept of 2015 to serve the community that she grew up in. In September 2020, she helped open the Clara Community Health Center in OKC which is a free clinic for the uninsured. She is also a faculty presenter for the REACH Institute, which is an organization that trains primary care clinicians to manage mental health disorders in youth.