

Dr. Melissa Ann Walker is a family medicine physician and the owner and founder of Carol Clinic for Family-Centered Healthcare. Carol Clinic is named for her late mother, Mrs. Carol Williams Walker. Dr. Walker's mother suffered a stroke at the age of 53 and was hospitalized for greater than two years before her death. After her mother's death, Dr. Walker's initial desire to become a physician was reignited.

Dr. Walker is a graduate of Grambling State University where she received both a Bachelor Science in Biology and a Master of Public Administration in Health Services. She received her medical degree from Midwestern University in Illinois and completed her residency in Family Medicine at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston.

Dr. Walker takes very seriously her responsibility to better mankind and support the underserved and underrepresented. She currently serves as President of C.A. Whittier Medical Society and as Chair for her region of the National Medical Association which encompasses nine states.

Dr. Walker is vivacious public speaker. She travels the United States and abroad speaking on healthcare issues and other topics to which she gives a "medical and spiritual prospective." Dr. Walker gives praises to God for all her many blessings and talents. She believes that medicine is a ministry for which she was chosen. She often states, "My goal is to make a difference in the lives of families, all families."
