

Dr. Keisia Sobers-Butler is an advanced practice registered nurse with 20+ years' experience. She currently lives in Edmond, Oklahoma and is a product of Orleans Parish Public Schools, born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana. Dr. Sobers-Butler is 25 years married, and the mother of a young adult, born with VACTERL syndrome. She is most passionate about intentional success, improving quality and health outcomes, health literacy, and leading teams in Case Management, Utilization Management, Health Equity, and Community Navigation.

As the Vice President of Population Health, Clinical Operations, Health Equity, Community Navigation, Rural/Telehealth Services, and Tribal Partnerships at Oklahoma Complete Health (OCH), a Centene Corporation subsidiary, Dr. Sobers-Butler oversees the development and implementation of all innovative strategies and clinical programs for Medicaid, Marketplace, Medicare, and special populations. Before joining OCH, Dr. Sobers-Butler was an integral part of Texas Medicaid managed care organizations. She is a graduate of the University of Texas at Tyler with a Doctor of Nursing Practice in Nursing Leadership. She also has a Master of Nursing Education from Prairie View A&M University, and undergraduate degrees in Business Administration from Southern University A&M, and Nursing from Texas Woman's University. Dr. Sobers-Butler serves on the Advisory Board for the University of Oklahoma Women in Leadership Certification program and is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Dr. Sobers-Butler enjoys anytime with her family and fur babies, annually attending the Bayou Classic, watching HGTV, and traveling.